- (a) by the substitution for the heading of the following heading: “Registration and use of additional qualifications, [and] registration of [specialities] specialists, persons in subspecialities, professional categories and additional professional categories”;
- (b) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection: “(1) [Every] A person who desires to have a qualification registered, other than the qualification by virtue of which he or she has in the first instance been registered, or to [have a speciality registered] be registered as a specialist or in a subspeciality, professional category or additional professional category recognised by a professional board shall, upon payment of [the] a prescribed fee and subject to the provisions of subsection (2), be entitled to be registered as a specialist or in a professional category or additional professional category or to have such [other] additional qualification [or such speciality] entered in the register.”;
- (c) by the substitution for subsection (1A) of the following subsection: “(1A) Where a person fails in respect of any provision of a regulation made under section 61(1)(f) and applies to [have a speciality registered] be registered as a specialist or in a professional category or an additional professional category in terms of this section, the [council] relevant professional board may require him or her to pass to the satisfaction of the [council] professional board, on a date and at a place determined by the [council] professional board, an examination prescribed under subsection (1B) before examiners appointed by the [council] professional board, for the purpose of determining whether his or her professional knowledge, [and] skills and competence in the [professional field] discipline of his or her speciality or field of his or her professional category is sufficiently adequate to enable him or her to practise as a specialist or to be registered in that professional category or additional professional category.”;
- (d) by the substitution for subsection (1B) of the following subsection: “(1B) The Minister may on the recommendation of the council, and in consultation with the relevant professional board, from time to time make regulations which prescribe the examination which shall be

- conducted for the purposes of subsection (1A), and the fees which shall be paid by persons who sit for such examination.”;
- (e) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:
 “(2) Only such additional and specialist qualifications, [or] specialities and subspecialities, professional categories or additional professional categories as may be prescribed, shall be registrable under this section.”; 5
- (f) by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:
 “(3) No registered person shall take, use or publish in any way whatsoever any name, title, description or symbol indicating or calculated to lead persons to infer that he or she holds any professional qualification which is not shown in the register [in connection with] as registered against his or her name, nor shall any registered person practise as a specialist or hold himself or herself out to be a specialist unless his or her speciality has been registered as prescribed.”; 10 15
- (g) by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:
 “(4) (a) The [council] relevant professional board may remove from the register any qualification registered in terms of subsection (1), if in respect of such qualification the name of the holder thereof has been removed from the roll, register or record of the university, hospital, college, society or other body from which that person received such qualification. 20
 (b) The [council] relevant professional board may remove from the register any speciality if it is satisfied that the person on whose application such speciality has been registered has not complied with the requirements prescribed in regard to the registration of specialities, and shall so remove any speciality on the written application of the person [on whose application such speciality has been registered] concerned. 25
 (c) A qualification removed in terms of paragraph (a) or a speciality removed in terms of paragraph (b), shall be restored to the register by the registrar upon the person concerned— 30
 (i) applying on the prescribed form for such restoration;
 (ii) paying the fee prescribed in respect of such restoration; and
 (iii) complying with such other requirements, if any, as the [council] relevant professional board may determine.”. 35

36. Section 38 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Amendment of section 39 of Act 56 of 1974, as substituted by section 5 of Act No 43 of 1980 and amended by section 36 of Act 89 of 1997

37. Section 39 of the principal Act is hereby amended—
- (a) by the substitution for the heading of the following heading: 45
 “Prohibition of performance [for gain] of certain acts by unregistered persons deemed to pertain to [other] health professions [by unregistered persons] registrable in terms of this Act”;
- (b) by the substitution in subsection (1) for the words preceding paragraph (a) of the following words: 50
 “No person shall perform [for gain] any act deemed [under section 33] to be an act pertaining to any [other] health profession as may be prescribed under this Act unless he or she—”;

- (c) by the substitution in subsection (1) for paragraph (b) of the following paragraph:
- “(b) (i) is registered in terms of this Act in respect of any other profession referred to in section 33 to which [also] such act is [under section 33] also deemed to pertain; or 5
- (ii) practises [another] a health profession in respect of which the registrar in terms of this Act keeps a register and such act is deemed to be an act which also pertains to such profession;”;
- (d) by the deletion in subsection (1) of paragraphs (c) and (d); and
- (e) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection: 10
- “(2) [Any] A person [contravening the provisions of] who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to a fine [not exceeding R500] or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months, or to both [such] a fine and such imprisonment.”.

Substitution of section 40 of Act 56 of 1974, as substituted by section 7 of Act 33 of 1976 and amended by section 6 of Act 43 of 1980 and section 37 of Act 89 of 1997 15

38. The following section is hereby substituted for section 40 of the principal Act:

“Penalty for professing to be a registered person or [the] holder of certain qualifications

40. Any person who is not registered in respect of any [other] health profession, but— 20

- (a) pretends to be so registered in respect of such profession; or
- (b) uses any name, title, description or symbol indicating, or calculated to lead persons to infer that he or she is the holder of any qualification which by rule under this Act is recognized by the [council] relevant professional board as acceptable for registration in respect of such profession, but of which qualification he or she is not the holder; or 25
- (c) uses any name declared by regulation to be a name which may not be used, shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding [twelve months] five years, or to both [such] a fine and such imprisonment.”. 30

Amendment of section 41 of Act 56 of 1974, as substituted by section 39 of Act 89 of 1997

39. Section 41 of the principal Act is hereby amended— 35

- (a) by the substitution for the heading of the following heading:
“Inquiries by professional boards into charges of [misconduct] unprofessional conduct”; and
- (b) by the deletion in subsection (1) of the proviso.

Amendment of section 41A of Act 56 of 1974, as inserted by section 5 of Act 58 of 1984 and amended by section 40 of Act 89 of 1997 40

40. Section 41A of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:
 “(1) The registrar may [with the approval of the chairperson of a professional board], where necessary in order to establish more facts, appoint an officer of the professional board as an investigating officer for the purposes of this section.”; 45
- (b) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:
 “(2) If the registrar deems it necessary, he or she may [with the approval of the chairperson of a professional board and on such conditions as the professional board may determine,] appoint any person other than a member of the professional board, who is not in the full-time employment of the professional board, as investigating officer for a particular investigation, or to assist the investigating officer contemplated in subsection (1) with a particular investigation.”; 50 55

(c) by the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection:

“(5) If the registrar deems it necessary for the achievement of the objects of this Act, he or she may institute or cause to be instituted an investigation—

- (a) into an alleged contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provision of this Act; 5
- (b) in order to determine if any provision of this Act applies to or has been contravened by a registered person; and
- (c) into a charge, complaint or allegation of [improper or disgraceful unprofessional] conduct by a registered person[; 10
- (d) into the affairs or conduct of a registered person, if requested to do so by a person by reason of allegations confirmed upon oath].”;

(d) by the substitution for subsection (6) of the following subsection:

“(6) (a) An investigating officer carrying out an investigation in terms of this section may request any person to— 15

- (i) produce to him or her any book, document, electronic data or thing which such investigating officer on reasonable grounds believes to relate to the matter which he or she is investigating, and which such investigating officer on reasonable ground believes to be— 20
 - (aa) on any premises which are owned by or in the possession of or controlled by such person; or
 - (bb) in the possession of or under the control of or upon such person; and
- (ii) furnish such explanations to him or her as he or she may reasonably require in relation to any such book, document, electronic data or thing. 25

(b) Subject to paragraph (h), an investigating officer carrying out an investigation in terms of this section must apply to a magistrate or a judge for a search warrant for—

- (i) any premises on which the investigating officer on reasonable ground believes one or more articles referred to in paragraph (a) may be found; or 30
- (ii) any person whom the investigating officer on reasonable grounds believes to have in his or her possession or upon his or her person or under his or her control one or more articles referred to in paragraph (a). 35

(c) The magistrate or judge to whom an application in terms of paragraph (b) is made may issue the search warrant if it appears to him or her from information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any such article is—

- (i) upon or at any such premises within his or her area of jurisdiction; or 40
- (ii) in the possession or under the control of or upon any such person within his or her area of jurisdiction.

(d) A search warrant issued under paragraph (c) must require the investigating officer and, if so requested by the investigating officer, any named police official or police officials who have agreed to assist in executing the search warrant, to seize the article or articles in question, and must to that end authorise such investigating officer and police official or police officials to search any person identified in the warrant or to enter and search any premises identified in the warrant and to search any person found on or at such premises. 50

(e) A search warrant issued under paragraph (c) must be executed by day, unless the magistrate or judge issuing the warrant in the warrant authorises the execution thereof by night.

(f) A search warrant may be issued under paragraph (c) on any day and must be of force until it is executed or cancelled by the magistrate or judge who issued it or, if such person is not available, by a person with like authority. 55

(g) An investigating officer executing a warrant under this section must after such execution, upon demand of any person searched or who owns or is in possession of or controls any premise searched or whose rights in respect of any search or article seized under the warrant may 60 have been affected, hand to such person a copy of the warrant so executed.

(h) An investigating officer carrying out an investigation in terms of this section may without a search warrant issued under paragraph (c) search any person or premises for the purpose of seizing any article referred to in paragraph (a) if—

- (i) the person concerned consent to such search for and the seizure of the article in question;
- (ii) the person who may consent to the search of the premises consents to such search for and the seizure of the article in question; or
- (iii) the investigating officer on reasonable grounds believes that a search warrant will be issued to him or her under paragraph (c) if he or she applies for such warrant and that the delay in obtaining such warrant would defeat the object of the search.

(e) by the substitution in subsection (8) for paragraphs (b) and (c) of the following paragraphs respectively:

“(b) (i) If such a report reveals prima facie evidence of [improper or disgraceful] unprofessional conduct contemplated in this Act and no complaint[,] or charge has been lodged or laid or allegation regarding the conduct in question has been made for the purpose of an inquiry in terms of section 41, such report shall be deemed to be a complaint made for that purpose, and the registrar shall serve a copy thereof on the registered person concerned.

(ii) If such a report reveals prima facie evidence which [in the opinion of the chairperson of the professional board] makes it desirable that an [inquiry] investigation in terms of section 51 be instituted, the registrar shall serve a copy thereof on the [registered person concerned] health committee to further investigate and deal with the matter in terms of this Act.

(iii) If such a report does not reveal prima facie evidence of unprofessional conduct contemplated in this Act, the registrar shall serve a copy thereof [to] on the registered person concerned.

(c) To the extent that such a report contains statements of witnesses which would have been admissible as oral evidence at an inquiry in terms of section 41 or an investigation in terms of section 51, the provisions of section 213 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of those statements at such an inquiry.”;

(f) by the substitution for subsection (9) of the following subsection:

“(9) (a) A person who carries out or assists with the carrying out of an investigation in terms of this section, shall keep or assist in preserving [secrecy] confidentiality in respect of all facts which come to his or her notice in the performance of his or her functions, and shall not disclose any such fact to any person except the registrar, the president, [the council the professional board concerned, the chairperson of the professional body concerned,] chairperson of a relevant professional board or the public prosecutor concerned in the case of an offence in terms of this Act, or by order of a court.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), no personal particulars regarding a patient shall be disclosed to any person except by order of a court or with the consent of the presiding officer at an inquiry contemplated in section 41 or an investigation contemplated in section 51.”;

(g) by the substitution for subsection (11) of the following subsection:

“(11) Any person who—

(a) refuses or neglects to produce any book, document, electronic data or thing to any person who is in terms of this section authorized to ask [therefor] for it;

(b) hinders or obstructs the registrar or an investigating officer in the exercise of his or her powers or the carrying out of his or her duties;

- (c) pretends that he or she is the registrar or an investigating officer;
 (d) contravenes a provision of subsection (9),
 shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction—
- “(i) in the case of a contravention contemplated in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), to a fine [not exceeding R500] or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding [six] twelve months or to both [such] a fine and such imprisonment; 5
- (ii) in the case of a contravention contemplated in paragraph (d), to a fine [not exceeding R1 500] or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both [such] a fine and such imprisonment.”. 10

Amendment of section 42 of Act 56 of 1974, as amended by section 8 of Act 33 of 1976, section 7 of Act 79 of 1990, section 15 of Act 58 of 1992, Government Notice R.1140 of 1 July 1994, section 41 of Act 89 of 1997 and Government Notice R.19 of 3 January 1997 15

41. Section 42 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) [Every] Any person registered under this Act who, after a determination made by a preliminary committee of inquiry on minor transgressions or an inquiry held by [the professional board] a professional conduct committee, is found guilty of improper or disgraceful conduct, or conduct which, when regard is had to such person’s profession, is improper or disgraceful, shall be liable to one or [other] more of the following penalties[—]; 20

- (a) A caution or a reprimand or a reprimand and a caution; [or] 25
 (b) suspension for a specified period from practising or performing acts specially pertaining to his or her profession; [or]
 (c) removal of his or her name from the register; [or]
 (d) a prescribed fine [not exceeding R10 000; or];
 (e) a compulsory period of professional service as may be determined 30 by the professional board; or
 (f) the payment of the costs of the proceedings or a restitution or both.”;

(b) by the substitution for subsection (1A) of the following subsection: 35

“(1A) If an appeal is lodged against a penalty of erasure or suspension from practice, such penalty shall remain effective until the appeal is [heard] finalised.”;

(c) by the substitution in subsection (4) for the words following paragraph (c)(iii) of the following words: 40

“shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to a fine [as] determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Justice by notice in the Gazette: Provided that every person so summoned shall be entitled to all the privileges to which a witness subpoenaed to give evidence before a provincial division of the [Supreme] High Court is entitled.”; 45

(d) by the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection: 50

“(5) The chairperson of a professional board, where the professional board itself holds an inquiry in terms of section 41, or the chairperson of a professional conduct committee of a professional board, where such a committee holds an inquiry under powers delegated to it by the professional board, may appoint a person with adequate experience in the administration of justice to be present as an assessor at such an inquiry and to advise the professional board or such committee, as the case may be, on matters of law, procedure or evidence.”; 50

(e) by the substitution for subsection (8) of the following subsection: 55

“(8) If a person registered in terms of this Act (in this section referred to as the [accused] respondent) is alleged to be guilty of unprofessional conduct and the professional board on reasonable grounds is of the opinion that it shall impose a fine as determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Justice by notice in the Gazette on conviction after an inquiry under section 41, the professional board may 60 issue a summons as prescribed on which an endorsement is made by the professional board or the registrar that the [accused] respondent may admit that he or she is guilty of the said conduct and that he or she may pay the fine stipulated without appearing at the said inquiry.”; and

(f) by the substitution for subsection (9) of the following subsection: 5

“(9) Where a summons in terms of subsection (8) is issued against [an accused, the accused] a respondent, he or she may, without appearing at an inquiry in terms of section 41, admit his or her guilt in respect of the conduct referred to in subsection (1) by paying the stipulated fine (in this section referred to as the admission of guilt fine) to the relevant professional board [concerned] before a date specified in the summons.”. 10

Substitution of section 44 of Act 56 of 1974, as amended by section 43 of Act 89 of 1997

42. The following section is hereby substituted for section 44 of the principal Act: 15

“Effect of suspension or removal from register

44. Every person who has been suspended or whose name has been removed from the register in terms of section 42 shall, if his or her profession is one which, under this Act, cannot be lawfully [carried on] practised by an unregistered person, be disqualified from [carrying on] practising his or her profession and his or her registration certificate shall be deemed to be cancelled until the period of suspension has expired or until his or her name has been restored to the register by the professional board.”. 20

Amendment of section 45 of Act 56 of 1974, as amended by section 44 of Act 89 of 1997 25

43. Section 45 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) Whenever in the course of any proceedings before any court of law it appears to the court that there is prima facie proof of unprofessional conduct on the part of a registered person, or of conduct which, when regard is had to such person’s profession, is unprofessional, the court shall direct that a copy of the record of such proceedings, or such portion thereof as is material to the issue, shall be transmitted to the relevant professional board.”. 30

Amendment of section 49 of Act 56 of 1974, as amended by section 47 of Act 89 of 1997 35

44. Section 49 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the deletion of subsection (2).

Substitution of section 51 of Act 56 of 1974, as substituted by section 49 of Act 89 of 1997 40

45. The following section is hereby substituted for section 51 of the principal Act:

“Regulations relating to [inquiries] investigations in respect of impaired persons registered in terms of this Act

51. The Minister may, [in] after consultation with the council and the professional boards, make regulations relating to [inquiries] investigations in respect of students or persons registered in terms of this Act who appear to be impaired, on the assessment of their condition, the conditions to be imposed on their registration or practice, their suspension or removal from practising, revocation of conditions, suspension or removal and on acts of unprofessional conduct committed before or during assessment or investigation.”. 45 50

Amendment of section 53 of Act 56 of 1974, as amended by section 9 of Act 52 of 1978, section 3 of Act 38 of 1982, section 43 of Act 23 of 1993, section 55 of Act 88 of 1996 and section 52 of Act 89 of 1997

46. Section 53 of the principal Act is hereby amended—
- (a) by the substitution for the heading of the following heading: 5
“[Charges] Fees charged by registered persons”;
- (b) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:
 “(2) Any practitioner who in respect of any professional services rendered by him or her claims payment from any person (in this section referred to as the patient) shall, subject to the provisions of section 32 of the Medical Schemes Act, [1967] 1998 (Act No. [72] 131 of [1967] 1998), furnish the patient with a detailed account within a reasonable period.”; and 10
- (c) by the substitution in subsection (3) for paragraph (c) of the following paragraph: 15
 “(c) The Minister may, after consultation with the council, make such regulations as he or she may deem necessary in relation to the procedure which a professional board shall follow in disposing of an application under this subsection.”.
